JUDGE YAFFE CONFERRED WITH LEGAL COUNSEL ON DEMAND FOR FARR HEARING

Los Angeles, CA. The FULL DISCLOSURE NETWORK® presents a special video report on the growing confusion within L.A. Superior Court on how to handle the indefinite solitary "coercive Confinement" of a prominent anti-trust prosecutor Richard I. Fine. Faced with a "Demand For A Farr Hearing" Yaffe sought legal counsel from the Court's attorney, while deliberating his decision, according to Superior Court Clerk assigned to Yaffe's court room.

RICHARD FINE REACTS TO LEGAL CONSULTATION

This Special Report provides an inside glimpse as to what goes on in the closed Superior Court Judicial Chambers. Just imagine the legal questions Judge Yaffe must have to ask. Superior Court Counsel Frederick J. Bennett was a former Deputy L. A. County Counsel at the time the County started giving the illegal payments to the Judges in 1987 or 1988. Yaffe has admitted in sworn testimony that he has been receiving payments from the county and did not disclose them to the litigants in the court cases.
